Haleakala, Maui’s most famous volcano, is the largest dormant volcano in the world. The crater is 21 miles across and 4,000 feet deep which is large enough to hold the island of Manhattan!

The largest Banyan tree in the world is found in Lahaina, Maui. It was originally planted as an 8 foot tree in 1873 and has grown to inhabit an entire acre.

Maui has been voted the “Best Island in the World” 16 times by Conde Nast Traveler Magazine.

ATV Adventure

Monday, April 10, 2017

Explore Kahoma Valley’s cattle pastures, private unpaved dirt roads, and rocky trails on an AT V (all-terrain-vehicle), no experience necessary! Enjoy breathtaking views of Lahaina town, the Kaanapali Resort, and the islands of Lanai and Molokai as you climb up to an elevation of 1,800 feet. Up here in “The Garden” time seems to have stopped. Surrounding a fresh water reservoir fed by the waters of the West Maui Mountains waterfalls, this area makes you want to stop and turn off your engine for a truly tranquil and calming experience.

Bike 28 Miles down Haleakalā Midday

Monday, April 10, 2017

Get ready…you’re going to coast 28 miles down the side of a volcano on a bicycle! Start with a van tour of the National Park before heading down to the 6,500-foot elevation of Mt. Haleakalā to begin your bike tour. The ride, complete with photo stops, will take you through eucalyptus forests and the beautiful communities that comprise Maui’s “Upcountry.” Here, flower farms dot the rolling hills and jacaranda trees line the roadways. At the conclusion of the trip, you’ll have spent two hours on your bike and leisurely travelled from the 6,500-foot elevation (1,981 meters) all the way down to sea level. It is all downhill with almost no pedaling. Maui is the one place in the world to experience this unique activity!

Timing is 7:00 AM – 3:00 PM

Haleakalā, Lunch & Makawao Shopping
Monday, April 10, 2017

Enjoy this spectacular journey to Haleakalā, renowned for its raw beauty and unique scenery. This “House of the Sun,” is a sleeping volcano around which a national park has grown. The largest dormant volcano on earth, it measures 21 miles in circumference and climbs 10,023-feet into the heavens. Enjoy a brief crater rim walk before heading down the slopes.

A surprise awaits you as you journey up the slopes of Mt. Haleakalā. More treasures abound in the sleepy little village of Makawao. You can’t visit the slopes of Haleakalā without dining at the Kula Lodge. The enchantment of a western cowboy town can be felt all around. However, look closer and tucked behind the hitching post, you will find art galleries, specialty boutiques, and sidewalk cafes. Makawao has become a true artist’s haven and a delightful stop for specialty gifts. Wear comfortable clothing and walking shoes. Bring a light jacket and camera.

Timing is 8:00 AM – 4:00 PM
- 8:00 AM – Depart hotel

- Conditions at the summit are unpredictable and can be cold, wet, windy, and covered in clouds
Hike & Waterfall Swim

Monday, April 10, 2017

A one-hour narrated van tour will take you to one of the most Hana Highway. This is a valley unique for having multiple waterfalls within a short distance of each other, an unusual feature, even for a rainforest! You'll hike over two miles roundtrip on rainforest trails amid towering trees, bamboo, and tropical flowers. Your guide will share details of Hawaii's geology, botany, culture, and history along the way. Two streams lead to several waterfalls from 10-feet to 40-feet high. The falls spill into big, clear, fresh-water swimming and you'll have the option to jump off rock ledges into the pools.

Timing is 8:30 AM – 2:30 PM

- 8:30 AM – Depart hotel
- 9:30 AM – 4-hour rainforest hike with lunch at a waterfall
- 1:30 PM – Hike concludes
- 2:30 PM – Arrive at hotel

Horseback Riding

Monday, April 10, 2017

Located in the heart of West Maui, you’ll canter up to the mouth of lush green valleys, view waterfalls cascading from sheer cliffs into pristine valleys, and have the Pacific Blue sparkling in the distance.

Sitting astride a horse with sunshine at your back and colorful vistas all about is a delight for the senses. This is an easy ride recommended for all riding levels. Your guide will choose a horse to match your riding ability, such as beginner, novice, intermediate, or advanced. This is designated as a walking ride and safety is always our top priority. The pace is based on the least experienced rider in your group.

Rappelling

Monday, April 10, 2017

If you are physically fit and like to be challenged, you will enjoy the demanding aspects of this day! This thrilling Maui activity offers beginning rappelling as well as advanced. A narrated van tour will take you to one of the most popular valleys on Maui’s famous Hana Highway, followed by a hike through a rain forest to an overlook where you can rappel down 30- and 50-foot waterfalls with opportunities to swim beneath them (weather permitting). Beginners can rappel down an easy descent and can climb back up the cliff to practice another rappel. If you have some experience, you may choose to rappel down the waterfalls in more technical descents with overhangs that leave you floating in mid-air until you reach the pool below. Lunch is served at one of the pools or overlooks. The exit is a 300-foot climb up a steep, but well-built trail that will leave you feeling like you’ve been on a stair-climber in the forest.

Timing is 7:30 AM – 2:30 PM and 9:30 AM – 4:30 PM

The Feast at Lele

Lahaina was once called Lele. For hundreds of years Lahaina was home to the great kings of Hawai`i. These “Ali`i” feasted and entertained their royal guests along the shores of the play they called “Lele.” Today we invite you to relive those times as Lahaina hosts a celebration of food, dance, and music of the Pacific Islands. Enjoy a five course sit-down dinner featuring the cuisine of Hawai`i, Tonga, Tahiti, Samoa, and a dessert. Executive Chef James McDonald from Pacific’O Restaurant creates the menu. Each course is accompanied by dramatic Polynesian from the corresponding course….Hawaiian food is enjoyed while the hula dancers swing their hips.

Timing:
- 5:00 PM – Depart hotel
- 6:00 PM – 3-hour Lu`au feast
- 9:00 PM – Lu`au concludes
- Shuttles will return to the hotel from the Lahaina Banyan Tree every 30-minutes on the hour and on the half-hour from 7:30 pm to 11:00 pm
